GOV. A. O. STANLEY

PRESIDING ELDER DARLINGTON.

On the occasion of Elder Darling-ton's last visit to Louisa, he preached discourses at the M. E. Church South, which were masterpieces of pulpit ef-fort. His sermon of Friday evening related to the carrying of the palsied man to a house in Capernaum and letting him down through the roof in order that he might see Jesus and be seen by Him. The eloquent divine told, in his own original and forceful way, how the four men might have carried the poor man through the streets of difficulty prevent them from doing their work for the one who could not do anything for himself. The lesson to be learned was evident.

On Sunday evening he based a splen did sermon on God's command to the children of Israel to leave Mt. Horeb, where they had become satisfied, and resume their journey to Cansan, where he had ordered them to go. Both ser-mons were preached to very large and at entive audiences.

The entertainment given by Mrs. Lillian Strange Warner, of Hunting-ton, and Mrs. B. M. Keith, of this city, for the benefit of the Woman's Missionary Society of the M. E. Church South, was a success from any point of view. It was presented at Eldorado, the cozy amusement place managed by D. J. Burchett, and the room was filled from the lobby to the footlights by an appreciative audience, one that was generous and at the same time discriminating in its appearance. It may be properly said that the evening was one of song and story. Mrs. Warner one of song and story are with Mrs. Keith, and the latter supplemented her contribution to the enjoyment of the evening by telling in her inimitable some very fine stories, and telling them in such a natural manner that the listener who knew her might easily, believe that she was telling some experience of her own. Notwithstanding the evident fact that Mrs. Warner was suffering with a severe cold Mrs. Warner pleased all by the purity and sweetness of her tones, her errect style and the high class of her holding that existing laws, if fairly hearers very much. Mrs. Keith's ability and versatility as a reader was a pleasing revelation to most of her audience. She is the owner of a voice which, even in ordinary conversation delights the ear with its rich, clear tones. This is a valuable asset to a public reader, and Mrs. Keith knows how to make splendid use of her property. On Tuesday evening her selections ran "from grave to gay, from lively to severe," and she was as much at home in one as in the other. Her comprehension of the meaning of the author whose production she is using is fine, and her ability to make her audience understand the author's meaning is rare. Altogether this was an evening of rere enjoyment, cleasing all and bringing a substantial increase to the funds of the

The Fair committee was unable to complete the premium list in time for this week's issue of the NEWS, because premiums are coming in every day to Louisa merchants from wholesale houses, and the committee believes it best to wait until the list is complete.

The public understands, however, that the list will include about the same items as in other years. So they will be safe in preparing to enter anything destrable.

The prospects are excellent from every standpoint, and everybody is urg-ed to take part. It will be the biggest fair yet. Remember the dates—four days, Wednesday, to Saturday, Sept. days, Wedr 22-23-24-25.

CRIMINAL CASES SET FOR NEXT WEEK.

99 INDICTMENTS RETURNED BY THE GRAND JURY OF LAW-RENCE CIRCUIT COURT.

The last of the misdemeanor cases was disposed of on Wednesday of last week and the trial of felonies was be-gun. Only two were tried, Dennie Rice, for detaining a woman, and Ben Fish-er, for stealing coal from a railroad After being out only a short time the jury in the Rice case brought in a verdict of not guilty. In the case of Fisher the jury failed to agree. The ase against Grover See, charged with the murder of a young man Butler, at Torchlight last week, was, by agreement, set for next Monday Sept. 6th, the 13th day of the term. It is said that both the commonwealth and the defendant will be ready for trial. The grand jury made a final re-port on Wednesday of this week and was discharged. It reported 99 indict-ments, an unusually large number.

The court is now busy with the civ-il docket, quite a number of cases be-ing disposed of. Prosecutor Waugh went home Saturday but will return Monday, ready for the trial of whatever felonies may be called.

THIEF CONVERTED BY STOLEN BIBLE

Hopkinsville, Ky., Aug. 28.-On-Sunday night last May while Mr. and Mrs. T. K. Rice, of this county, were way from home someone broke into the house and took Mr. Rice's new cost and vest and a Bible which Mrs. Rice had given him. Mrs. Rice refused to allow Mr. Rice to put the case it officers' hands and expressed the abiding faith that if the matter let alone to take its own course the articles would all be returned. Yesterday Mrs. Rice's faith was vindicated when a strange man walked up to their house and stated that he was the fellow who had taken the coat and vest and Bible. He said that as he made his way on toward Mannington he sat down on the side of the and began reading the Bible, and what he read made him realize his sinful condition and he was later converted.
